TRINITY COLLEGE.

THIS College, founded in 1823 as a College of the Protestant Episcopal Church, offers to members of the Church and of all Christian bodies, a course of Education based upon religious principles, and intended to train its students to be good scholars, good citizens and good men.

Its grounds comprise fourteen acres, bordering on the City Park of Hartford. Its buildings are three in number. Seabury Hall, so named from the first Bishop of Connecticut, contains the Chapel, Library, and Cabinet, and other public rooms. The Library consists of about 7,000 volumes. Jarvis and Brownell Halls, named from the second and third Bishops of the same Diocese, contain recitation and lodging rooms.

Four Professorships are either partly or wholly endowed, under the names of Seabury, Hobart, Brownell, and Scovill. An endowment for a fifth, to be called the Massachusetts Professorship, has been begun. Four Library Funds, the Elton, the Sheffield, the Peters, and the Burgess, and one Prize Fund, the Tuttle, have been established. The Scholarships are enumerated on another page.

RELIGIOUS WORSHIP AND INSTRUCTION.

Daily Morning and Evening Prayer is said in the College Chapel. Addresses on religious subjects are delivered in connection with the Chapel Services. The Holy Communion is celebrated and Confirmation is administered at stated seasons. The Right Reverend Visitors may be expected to hold services in the Chapel from time to time.

Until arrangements are made for Sunday services in the Chapel, students will attend public worship at such places as their parents or guardians may desire.

Instruction is given every Monday morning, either in the Greek Testament, or in various text-books or lectures on History of the Church, of the Scriptures, and of the Book of Common Prayer; the Creed; Natural Theology, and Christian Evidences. This instruction is continued throughout the Academic course.

EXAMINATIONS.

Professors' Examinations are held at the end of every month of four weeks in each Department. Those at the close of Christmas Term may be upon the studies of the whole Term.

The Trinity Annual Examinations, in presence of Committees appointed by the Corporation, the Board of Fellows and the Faculty, are upon all the studies of the year. The Senior Examinations of 1864 begin on the 6th of June, and the Junior, Sophomore and Freshman Examinations begin on the 21st of June.

The Annual Examinations are followed by the Examinations for Honors. Admission to these is regarded as itself an honor, inasmuch as it depends on passing the Professors' and the Annual Examinations with great credit. Success in the Examinations for Honors, the standard of which is higher than that of the Required Examinations, entitles a student to peculiar distinctions both during and after his College course.

The Committees of the Corporation and of the Board of Fellows are respectfully invited to attend all the Examinations of the College, at the times here specified, without further notice.

PRIZES.

THE TUTTLE PRIZE, OF THIRTY DOLLARS:

To be given to that member of the Senior Class who shall write the best essay on "The College Law of Honor."

There must be at least three competitors, and the essays must be submitted to the President by the 2d of April, 1864. The successful competitor will consider himself under obligation to read his essay before the College.

The Tuttle Prize of 1863 was awarded to WILLIAM THOMAS CURRIE.

THE PRESCOTT HISTORICAL PRIZE, OF TWENTY DOLLARS:

To be given by the President to that member of the Senior Class who shall write the best historical essay on "The Habeas Corpus Act and its Suspensions."

There must be at least three competitors, and the essays must be submitted to the President by the 1st of May, 1864. The successful essay will be read by its author before the College.

The Prescott Historical Prize of 1863 was awarded to WILLIAM THOMAS CURRIE. Honorable Mention was made of the Essay by JOHN SABINE SMITH.

THE GREEK PRIZE, OF TWENTY DOLLARS:

To be given by the Professor of Greek to that student who shall pass the best examination in the Crito of Plato. There must be at least three competitors.

A prize will be awarded on the following conditions. There must be six competitors, two from the Senior, two from the Junior, and two from the Sophomore Class, chosen by the members of each class respectively. Passages from Greek and Latin authors, distributed by lot, and then translated into English and submitted to the Professors of Greek and Latin and of English, will be pronounced in public on the appointed day, the Faculty acting as a committee of award on the delivery. The merit of the version, as a translation and as an English composition, together with the merit of the delivery, as a Declamation, shall have equal weight in determining the award of the Prize.

The Prize-man of the year will consider himself under obligation to pronounce an original version at the Prize Declamation of the following year, if he is still a member of the College, without being a candidate for a second Prize.

The Prize-man of 1863 was JOSEPH FIELD ELY.

PRIZES IN THE MODERN LANGUAGES.

Two prizes, consisting of works of Classical German authors, will be given by the Professor of Modern Languages to those members of the Senior and Junior Classes (one prize for each class) who shall make the best written translation into German of the first twelve "Aphorisms" in Coleridge's Aids to Reflection.

Two prizes, consisting of works of Classical French authors, will be given by the same Professor to those members of the Junior and Sophomore Classes (one prize for each class) who shall make the best written translation into French of the last chapter in Harrison's English Language.

There must be not less than three competitors for each of these prizes. The names of the competitors are to be given in before February 1st, and the translations by May 1st, 1864.

The German Prize of 1863 was awarded to ROBERT AGNEW BENTON; the French Prize to EDWARD PAYSON JOHNSON.

CHEMICAL PRIZE.

Subject,—Chlorine and its Compounds."

The Chemical Prize of 1863 was awarded to JOHN JAMES McCOOK.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The fee for tuition ($50 per annum) may be wholly or partly remitted to all who are unable to pay it, on special application to the Faculty. This is effected chiefly through twenty-four Scholarships endowed by subscriptions in the Diocese of Connecticut, two Scholarships established under an agreement with the Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in New York, the Scholarship of St Paul's Church, Troy, New York, and the Heartt Scholarship.

All charges (about $100 per annum) are remitted to the holders of the five Scholarships of Trinity Church, New York.

The Thomas Backus Scholarship, founded by the Rev. Stephen Jewett, M. A., to be held "by some beneficiary designing to enter the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church," yields one hundred dollars annually, for which the beneficiary is to give his obligation, payable, with interest, four years after he leaves the College.

The Church Scholarship Society, of the Diocese of Connecticut, aids a number of students with loans, not exceeding $100 per annum, which are granted only to persons in necessitous circumstances, preparing for Holy Orders, and sustaining a correct deportment as communicants. Applicants must be furnished with a testimonial of such qualifications, signed by a clergyman to whom they are personally known.

NOTE.—No student, incurring a serious College censure in the course of the year, will be recommended for any Scholarship.

 TERM REPORT.

An account of the scholarship and conduct of every student is transmitted to his parents or guardian at the close of each term.

 EXPENSES.

For tuition, (remitted, if necessary) $25 per term; for room rent, (with a room-mate,) $10 per term; for care of rooms, fuel for recitation rooms, and printing, $10 per term;

all payable in advance. There may also be assessments for damages or other common expenses.

Students admitted to an advanced standing, unless honorably dismissed from other Colleges, are required to pay $12 for each term of their advancement.

The students reside in the College, and furnish their own rooms. They board in private families. Good board can now be procured for $3.00 per week.

Provision has been made for supplying necessitous students with text-books.

To prevent extravagant or improper expenditures, it is recommended that all funds designed for the use of students, should be placed in the hands of the College Bursar, Professor Brocklesby.
